

BOWERY GREET PRESIDENT TAFT

Nation's Chief Reviews Bread-line and Visits Mission.

TALKS TO THE DESPAIRING

Holds Out Hope That They May Arise From the Bottomless Depths.

NEW YORK, December 13.—After speaking to-night in Carnegie Hall at the diamond jubilee of Methodist Missions in Africa, President Taft motored through a driving rainstorm to the Bowery Mission, where he made an address to a typical Bowery audience. He afterward inspected the "bread line" room, where each night hundreds of the unemployed are given food. The President, in immaculate evening clothes, presented a striking contrast to the men of the mission, who rose to their feet and cheered him as he entered the long, churchlike room from the rear. The drive to the mission was one of the wildest automobile trips the President has ever had. Rain was coming down in torrents. Entering the hall, the President met a number of the Bowery mission workers, among them Mrs. Bird, "the Mother of the Bowery," and Dr. Halliwell, superintendent of the mission. The President was introduced by Louis Klopfers, who established the mission. Dr. Halliwell first spoke to the men, wondering if you understand what an honor it is to have the President of the United States come down here to see you? "We do," came a chorus of answers. "Are you gratified?" "We are," came another hearty response. "Do you, from the bottom of your hearts, thank the President for coming here?" "We do, we do."

Three Bowery Cheers. "It took a man with a big, athletic heart to come all the way from the White House to the Bowery," said Mr. Halliwell. "But the wings of the eagle are very wide, and he has come right from the seats of the mighty to the bottomless pits of despair to encourage you. Now give him three rousing Bowery cheers." The audience responded with a will. "As I look in your faces," said the President in his address, "I see you to be earnest American citizens. Some of you are down on your luck, perhaps, but you are responding in every fibre to the Lord and everybody else being to me, and I am sure that the same aspirations for better ideals that I hope every man in this country has. "I am glad to be here, if by being here and by saying so I can convince you that the so-called chasm between you and those who seem for the time being to be more fortunate is not so much of a chasm after all, and that there is between them and you a deep feeling of sympathy on their part and an earnest desire that you shall have that equality of opportunity of getting on your feet, of earning a decent livelihood and of being your part and seems to be against you—to help you at such time to believe that there are

MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Little Alma Kellner Has Not Yet Been Found.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 13.—Circuit Judge Joseph Pryor, of Louisville, will formally request Governor Willson to offer a reward in the name of the State of Kentucky for Alma Kellner, a girl, who disappeared last week, since which time she has not been heard from. The Governor replied that he knew of no statute which would empower him to offer such a reward, but there was no restriction upon his offering a reward personally, and that he would take some action on the request to-morrow. Meanwhile it is a baffled police force and the people of Louisville that are still at work on the case.

A search was made by the police to-day of the Kellner home and of the home of Alma's grandmother, but no trace of the child was found.

Mrs. F. L. Kellner, mother of Alma, is reported to be bearing up well, and hopeful that her child is at least physically unharmed somewhere.

BODIES OF LAKE VICTIMS SENT TO THEIR HOMES

ERIE, Pa., December 13.—Four of the nine bodies picked up by Commodore Perry yesterday, the first of the thirty-eight men who lost their lives when the ferry, the Esmeralda, and the Marquette, No. 2, foundered in Lake Erie, were sent to their homes to-night. The bodies shipped are those of William Ray, of Butler, Pa.; Manuel Souars, of Reno, Pa.; Thomas Steel, of Conneaut, Ohio; George R. Smith, of Conneaut, Ohio.

The Commodore Perry, which did such heroic work in searching for the victims, lay in her slip all day with steam up, but the gale that blew over the lake was of such nature that it was feared that the vessel would be blown away to sea.

The wind subsided to-night, so that the search may be continued to-morrow.

CAR SERVICE IS NOW IMPROVED

Highland Park Committee Reports That Extra Car Has Been Put on Schedule.

At the monthly meeting of the Highland Park Citizens' Association last night, the special committee appointed some time ago to look into the street car service reported that an extra car was being run each morning and evening, with prospects that the service would be materially improved in a short while.

It having been found that residents of Highland Park had been taxed 28 1-2 cents more on the $100 worth of property than was just, a special committee which had the matter in hand reported that Judge Scott had been consulted and had ruled that all those overcharged would receive a refund by applying to the Treasurer.

The association was asked to indorse a motion requesting the Council to appropriate $1000 to the school to use the new school building as a meeting place, nor to allow the Assembly Hall to be rented for any purpose. It is not expected that this will go through, as the board is in favor of allowing the hall to be used for educational purposes of any kind.

By a vote of 20 to 2, a resolution was passed requesting the School Board to allow the Council to use the new school building as a meeting place, nor to allow the Assembly Hall to be rented for any purpose. It is not expected that this will go through, as the board is in favor of allowing the hall to be used for educational purposes of any kind.

HALF A CENTURY SPENT IN PRISON

Convict Is Permitted Outside the Walls for First Time.

HARTFORD, CONN., December 13.—John P. Warren, who has probably been in prison longer than any other man in the world, to-day left the Connecticut State prison, at Wethersfield, for the first time in just half a century. It is exactly fifty years ago that he was sent to jail for life for murder. Since then he has not left the prison grounds, but to-day he was allowed to go from the jail plant to the State Capitol, a mile away. His aged form was little bowed with the weight of years as he went under guard to answer for a pardon. He is officially designated as convict No. 1 on the roster of the Connecticut prison. If favorable action is taken by the board, and it is generally believed that such will be the case, the coming Christmas will be a happy one indeed for Warren.

When the doors of the big prison first closed behind him the Civil War had not commenced, railroad transportation was in its infancy, and such common conveniences of the present day as the telephone, the electric car, the automobile and typewriter were unheard of. Not to mention the gas, the scraper buildings, wireless telegraph, flying machines, submarine boats and a hundred and one other things with which the present generation is familiar.

Warren was born in 1814, and was taken to the prison when he was only a boy. He has since been in prison for life for murder. He has never been out of prison since.

News of Manchester

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street.

Was Not a Candidate.

The Times-Dispatch has received the following from Willis C. Pulliam: Since newspaper articles seem to have created in the minds of some of the citizens of Manchester the erroneous impression that I was a candidate for the position of City Attorney of this city, I write to state that this line could be more unfounded, as I had, when approached upon the subject, uniformly declined to be a candidate, and had Mr. J. L. Pulliam, my father, neither of us, as conditions exist just at this time, caring to hold said position.

Mr. Goodwin, who was elected, had written each member of the Council, asking for his support, and he was the only applicant whose name was before the joint session of the Council on Friday night. According to the ruling of the chair, each member had a right to vote for whom he pleased, whether in nomination or not. Even though my name had never been mentioned, seven gentlemen did vote for me as against ten who voted for Mr. Goodwin, and I assure those that voted for me that I deeply appreciate their action and the preference thereby shown. But, not being a candidate for said position in any sense of the word, I regretfully ask that you publish this in justice to me. Yours truly, WILLIS C. PULLIAM.

Funeral of Michael Moore. The funeral of Michael Moore, who died Sunday night at his home, 2400 Bainbridge Street, will take place this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Manchester. The interment will be in Maury Cemetery.

The following will act as pallbearers: Honorary Judge Ernest H. Wells, Clarence Vaden, H. C. Beattie, J. E. Robinson, J. C. Wright, J. E. Owen, Nicholas Ferriter and William Rankin.

Active—M. P. Burke, J. P. Westcott, A. B. Toler, T. A. Carroll, J. T. Martin, C. Layton and H. Hogan.

Funeral of Mrs. Mole. The funeral of Mrs. Mary M.
